This application was completed by me, all entries upon it and information in it are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. Any false or misleading information furnished by me on this application or other required documents or in connection with my application shall result in denial of employment or, if employed by Professional Employer Corporation, the termination of my employment. Professional Employer Corporation has my consent to make a thorough investigation on my background, including my past employment, references furnished, education and any other activities, and I release all persons, firms or entities supplying such information from any and all liability and damages on account of supplying such information. I further agree to indemnify Professional Employer Corporation against any and all liability that may result from making such an investigation.

I also acknowledge and understand that I am applying for employment with Professional Employer Corporation, that if hired I will be an employee of Professional Employer Corporation, and that I can be terminated at any time with or without cause. I understand and agree that if I am employed by Professional Employer Corporation, as a condition of my employment with Professional Employer Corporation, Professional Employer Corporation has the right to transfer my services to any available position, therefore, I agree to accept a position that I am qualified to perform. In the event that training may be needed, I agree to participate in any training that may be necessary to satisfy the position. I further agree that I will abide by all the rules, regulations and policies of Professional Employer Corporation and that failure to do so may be cause for termination. I further agree that in the event I am advanced any money by Professional Employer Corporation or any of its subscribers, and fail to make payment as agreed, MicroPRO Incorporated may deduct the amount unpaid from any wage I may have coming.

INJURY REPORTING REQUIREMENTS
RETURN – TO – WORK
POLICY

It is our goal to maintain a safe workplace for our employees. When an injury does occur, proactive measures help speed recovery and minimize expenses. It is YOUR responsibility to report the injury to your supervisor AND to PRO Resources within 8 hours of the incident. At that time, effective claims management processes and loss prevention measures are initiated in order to provide the best service to the injured employee and your company.

PRO promotes a Return-To-Work Program within medical guidance as a component of the treatment plan. If the injury results in a prolonged absence from work, we will coordinate Return-To-Work options that are medically appropriate. The priority is always Return-To-Work with your company but if appropriate accommodations are not feasible, then transitional assignments may be offered within the community.

The success of this program is the responsibility of everyone in the company from top management to every employee. Again, it is the employee's responsibility to:

- 1) Report incidents and injuries to your supervisor within 8 hours of occurrence
- 2) Reports incidents and injuries to PRO Resources within 8 hours of occurrence
- 3) Participate in Return-To-Work options that are medically appropriate

Everyone should be alert for potential accidents and strive to eliminate them. If you are aware of an unsafe act or condition, it should be reported immediately to your supervisor to be addressed. This action may prevent an injury from occurring.

By my signature below, I acknowledge and agree to comply with this policy.

Form W-4 (2014)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2014 expires February 17, 2015. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2014. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
